Chef Marvin Woods, America's Healthy Chef, Explores Atlanta's Booming Food Truck Scene in New Episode of GPB's Hit Show, Georgia Traveler

ATLANTA (Jan. 12, 2012) Tune in this Friday, January 13 at 8 PM to Georgia Public Broadcasting's hit show, Georgia Traveler, and catch celebrity chef Marvin Woods, America's Healthy Chef, as he checks out Midtown Atlanta's popular Street Food Thursdays. The food truck movement has swept the nation and has fast become a force in Georgia. With diverse and delicious foods ranging from Asian BBQ to decadent cupcakes, Chef Marvin and the food truck chefs will leave viewers' mouths watering.

Debuting in April of last year, Street Food Thursdays, has proven to be a popular break from the rest of the work week for the Midtown workforce. In this new Georgia Traveler episode, Chef Marvin samples some of the food truck favorites, including Tamale Queen and Sweet Auburn BBQ. Chef Marvin also goes behind the scenes into the food truck kitchens, Yumbii and Ibiza Bites, to see how these mobile eateries operate. It's a fascinating and fun foodie adventure. So tune in and come along for the ride.
